POISON.

Malarial PoisonGentlement—Last August a year ago (1885)
my wife was attacked with malarial poison.
She was reduced to a skeleton. She could not eat anything. I sent her away from home in hopes of benefiting her, but she was so low that she was confined to her bed nearly all the time. At this juncture I commenced treating her with Swin's Specific. She began to improve rapidly under this treatment, and soon she was free of all malarial troubles, and her appetite was completely restored. She only took about one dozen bottles. So great is her faith in S. S., she says she believes it would almost raise the dead. I myself know that the effect of S. S. S. in her case was marvelous, I say miraculous.

PISTRICT GOVERNMENT.

WHAT IT HAS COST TO RUN IT FOR NINE YEARS.

Improvements Made, the Kind and Cost-Original Ideas Adhered to and Plans Developed-Debt Retired Since 1878, and the Amount Still Existing.

The Treasury Department has just completed a statement of the cost of running the District under the present form of government from its inauguration down to the present time. The only public value there present time. The only public value there is to the matter consists in the figures showing what each administration paid out for the purposes of public improvements and general expenses. The expenditures for improvements show the kind and number made. The total expenditures go way up into the millions. The figures show increases one year and falling off in another, so it can be said that there is an evenness in the cost of running the District by each administration. The most prominent improvements made were those under Judge Edmonds, Gen. West, and Maj. Lydecker in the expenditure of $500,000 for sewerage. No explanations accompany the statement, although the figures would be better understood if such means were employed. No comparison is made with the cost of former governments, to show the advantage or disadvantage of one system over another. The statement has been given the commissioners, but in its present chape, without comparing it to former systems of government, it is valueless. Taking into consideration the population of the District when the present system was brought into existence and the circumstances surrounding the same, the appropriations and expenditures then made and the progressiveness manifested by the dirst commissioners, due credit falls to them, as it is clearly shown that the ideas then advanced have been adhered to and developed slowly and faithfully. To explain the figures given in the treasury statement would be to give a history of each District administration, and the number of miles of asphalt and other kinds of pavements laid, of the miles of sewer, water, and gas pipes put down; the number and cost of school buildings and sites. Ilkewise of station houses and engine houses, of hospitals and other building improvements, for charities, salaries of employes, and other expenses. To do justice therefore to so stupendous a task, to explain the reason for the lucrease of appropriation for one thing and the increase in another, would be a tresome job and uninteresting to read. From 1878 is to the matter consists in the figures showing what each administration paid out ship form of government) to 1887, inclusive.

Those most interested in this matter will there find several long columns of figures to add up in their leisure moments and study out their meaning.

LETTER POSTAGE.

What It Has Grown To in One Hundred and Twenty-Seven Years.

As late as the fifteenth century butchers and frovers in England, who went about buying cattle, were the principal carriers of private letters. The United States postal system was projected as early as 1692, but not organ-ized until 1710. In 1753 Benjamin Franklin ized until 1710. In 1753 Benjamin Franklin was appointed postmaster general for the colonies at a salary for himself and assistant of 5000 per annum. In 1760 he surprised the colonies by proposing to run a stage wagon to carry mail from Hos*on to Philadelphia every week. In 1774 Franklin was discharged from his office by the British government for his sympathy with the colonies. In 1789 the constitution of the United States gave Congress exclusive control of the postoffice for the states. The postoffice was then regularly organized.

exculsive control of the postoffices for the states. The postoffice was then regularly organized.

From 1780 to 1816 postage for single letters—that is, each letter having but one piece of paper in it was as follows: Under 40 miles, 8 cents; under 90 miles, 10 cents; under 10 miles, 10 cents; under 50 miles, 20 cents, over 550 miles, 25 cents. In 1816 until 1845 for single letters not over 30 miles, 25 cents, 150 to 400 miles, 10 cents; 50 to 150 miles, 125 cents; 150 to 400 miles, 185 cents; 167 vol 1 miles and over, 25 cents. And with every additional weight for every additional piece of paner, and if the letter weighed up to one ounce it was four times these rates. From 1846 to 1851 the following were the rates: Letters not exceeding 3 miles, 3 cents; letters exceeding 3 miles, 10 cents. From 1851 to 1856 letters for distances exceeding not more than 3,000 miles, 3 cents; if more than 3,000 miles, 3 cents; if more than 3,000 miles, 3 cents; if more than 3,000 miles, 3 cents, and on Oct.1, 1883, the law making postage on letters throughout the United States 2 cents went into operation.

Keeper Says. 482 Broadway, New York, Mar. 12, 1885. Some weeks ago I took a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. I suffered great pain, considerable fever, and, worst of all, found myself with a racking cough. In the evening I went to my box of Allcock's Porous Plasters, intending to use them on my throat, chest, and back. Unfortunately, my wife had given all the plasters away, and the consequence was that I spent a sleepless night. The next day I applied, an Allcook's Porous Plaster to my throat, one to my chest, and one between my shoulder blades. By 12 o'clock my breathing was much easier, cough almost stopped, while a gentle perspiration indicated that the fever was almost gone. In two days I was entirely

We happen to be of the same dispo-sition, and therefore say to the young world these pretty pictures, these stories, these poems will please you as few others can.

THE SANITARY ERA. May 1. Semt-monthly 5 cents; 51 a year. New York: William C Conant, 34 Bond street. Publisher. We hope the Era is doing great good; it is making vigorous effort, and certainly in the right direction. Its chief trouble is about the right direction. Its chief trouble is about water. "Multitudes are driven to drinking beer, wine, &c., by the often repulsive quality of the water supplied to most of our cittes. The wealthlest cities and the most heavily taxed for water works—such as New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Washington—are among the worst panderers in this way to the drinking vice."

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, May, 50 cents; $5 a year, New York; 3 East Four-teenth street, Publishers. The articles this month are unusually mportant, even for the North America Gen. Sherman heads the line with "Grant, Tho mas, Lee," contrasting the two latter and preferring Thomas. "My Public Life by President Garield," is really by him, his spoken words as followed by the stenographer; of course they possess peculiar interest. There is an appeal by the mayor of Baltimore, Hon. James Hodges, for comprehensive "Commercial Education," proving its necessity. Grant is exculpated from responsibility for Maximilian's execution, in "Our Hand in Maximilian's Fate," by Hon. George S. Boutwell. "That Everlasting Andover Controversy," "Beecher's Personality," "Fractical Penology," prison system of California; "Trial by Newspaper," protest against, and "The Coercion Biff," as disaceted and summed up by John Boyle O'Reilly, all ably treated. "Notes and Commente" conclude. This is good fare, healthy, and to make strong. Gen. Sherman heads the line with "Grant healthy, and to make strong.

HARPER'S YOUNG PROPLE, May 3, 5 cents $2 a year. New York : Harper & Bros. Pub-lishers,

"The Whistler" begins it, a "colored citizen" who adds to the trumming of his citizen" who adds to the trumming of his banjo "the music of his voice," as far as whistling is musical. So well does the representation of his lips express the intention that we can almost hear the sharp, shrill sounds, "A Neat Single Rig" is a man in a carriage, save that the horse is not a horse as nature designed, his mane being cut and standing erect, his tall barbarized and angular, instead of flowing; and the man a dudefashionable and ugly—forgive us the word "man." The other pictures are better, being sensible. There are good stories for juveniles, and "Our Postofice Box" is largely amusing and satisfactory.

with pleasure and with feelings of gratitude, for the queen has shown much regard for our country, by such acts, particularly, as declining to participate with France in the Mexican monarch imposition, and by refusing to sign the recognition of the southern confederacy. Moreover, she was a good wife, and is a good mother and a good woman.

RENEWED ACTIVITY.

Improvement Again Noted in Dealings

on 'Change. NEW YORK, May 18.—There was another burst of activity in the stock market to-day, and under the lead of New England and Missourt Pacific material advances were established over the entire list. There were exten their shorts, and in New England something likes squeeze is believed to have taken place. On the street the unixual strength and animation are set down entirely to this cause. The Gonid shares were prominent, and the general belief is that Mr. Gonid has taken hold of his special-ties for a rise. The foreign buying was somewhat larger to-day, but did not resen a position of importance in the market. There was considerable hammering by the room traders in the forencon, but it had little effect upon prices, and later in the day efforts were directed to getting back their stocks.

The opening was irregular, but generally firm, though the differences from inset evening's first prices were for slight fractions only. The onal stocks and grangers were inclined to weakness at first, but later recovered their tone. After the first hour the market quieted down, and prices remained stationary until sfer noon. After that time more animation was shown, and a decidedly strong tone developed throughout the list, while New England and Missouri Pacifico, with a few of the specialite, made marked advances. The improvement cominued until the close, which was active and strong, at the best prices of the day.

No Chicago Land Subject to Entry. The application of Lester A. Bartiert to locate with Gerard scrip certain lands on the lake front in Chicago has been refused by Acting Commissioner Stockslager. He says there are no lands subject to entry in Chicago under any kind of scrip, and if any portion of the land belonged to the United States a special act of Congress would be necessary to authorize its entry.
